The Motion Was Overruled. ONFORD, N. C., April 24.—(Special.)—In chambers to-day before Judge Green the motion to vacate the former order in the case of Lawrence Hoit against the Southern Finishing Company, requiring certain parties to testify in said suit in Greensboro, on the 29th instant. quiring certain parties to testify in said cut in Greensboro', on the 29th instant, was overruled. This is an action to declare void a certain contract upon which cone & Co. are suing Mr. Holt in New York, the amount involved being $50,600. Judge Winston represented the plaintiff (Holt), and Messrs. Dillard and Scott, of Greensboro', represented the defendants. The argument consumed most of the day. Defendants gave notice of an appeal, which was denied.

A LETTER OF DENIAL.

Issued by Members of the Savannah, Americus, and Montgomery Com. (Baltimore Herald.)

John Skelton Williams, of Richmond, and J. William Middendorf, of this city, respectively member and advisory member of the Savannah, Americus and Montgemery Railway Reorganization Commit-tee, have addressed an open letter to the first-mortgage bondholders of that line, whom the committee represent, denying certain recent statements.

The letter says that Hambleton & Co.'s circular of April 13th contained matter which places the bondholders' committee in an unjust light. It critically in the contained matter which places the bondholders' committee in an unjust light. committee in an unjust light. It criti-cised the proposed purchase of the Co-lumbus Southern raflway, saying that "it would be sulcidal." Mesers, Williams and Middendorf then go on to say that the senior member of Hambleton & Co., as a member of the special committee, went to New York last winter with other mem-bers and offered to take the Columbus Southern into the reorgani-zation, paying for it $570,000 first-mort-gage 5 per cent. bonds, with annual in-terest of $43,560, $576,000 in preferred stock, and over $500,000 in common stock of the and over $500,000 in common stock of the new company.

This was refused, the other side wanting cash or preference bonds. Subsequently a representative of the largest interest in the Columbus Southern said it could be had for $500,000. On January gist this plan was adopted, T. Edward Hambleton being represented by his son, F. S. Hambleton, who voted for the proposition.

It is also denied here that a reorgani-zation plan has not been adopted, one having been approved at the above meeting.

The proposition agreed to as to the Columbus Southern was to give the majority interests $600,000 in cash, with no preferred stock, and a small bonus in common stock. This has been accepted, and the Columbus Southern people have agreed to put the whole of their $600,000 back into the reorganized company. For this they will get about $600,000 preference bonds and $120,000 consolidated bonds, with about one third of the preferred stock bonus first offered. This makes $36,000 fixed charges, instead of $85,000, as stated in the circular, and of $43,500, as originally offered.

It is also stated that $20,000 is all that would be needed to put the Columbus would be needed to put the Columbus Southern into perfect order; besides, it would give an independent line into Columbus, the shortest line from there to Savannah and Albany, and decrease competition, besides conferring other advantages.

The letter concludes by saying that it is not desired to open any controversy.

Dr. Heber Newton Accused of Heresy The Rev. Dr. R. Heber Newton, the rector of All Souls' Church, preached on Sunday morning on the "Resurrection of Christ," with the result, says the New York correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, that several of his brother clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church this city are seriously considering the advisability of making formal charges of heresy against him. It is said that if Dr. Newton gave utterance to the statements that are credited to him he should be deposed from the ministry of the Church. One of the most important assertions made by Dr. Newton is the

The general belief is that there was a physical resurrection—a rising from the tomb of the very body of flesh and bones, which was laid away there after the crucifixion. I have held to this be-the crucifixion. I have held to this belief as long as possible, but no superstructure can forget its foundation, and my reasons for rejecting this belief I propose to tell you.

"We know now, from our fuller knowledge of the times of Jesus Christ, that the people, and the disciples themselves, believed not only in immortality, but in an actual physical resurrection. I cannot accept the testimony of the disciples,
and there is the fact that no one saw him in the act of rising from the tomb, and passing forth in the same identical form of his earthly bedy. I am frank to say that, for one, I do not believe the resurrection of Jesus Christ means the rising again from the tomb of the actual body laid away there. The Church undoubtedly believes it, and its authority is no higher than the authority of the disciples."

The Arrest of C. P. Huntington. (Washington Post.)

(Washington Post.)

This event, which occurred Monday night in New York, furnishes fresh illustration, if any were needed, of the vices and defects in the interstate commerce law, under which the arrest was procured. Mr. Huntington, it appears, is sued a pass to one Frank M. Stone, of San Francisco, a lawyer of more or less repute. It is the custom of the Southern Pacific railroad officials in Such cases to stamp passes of the kind with the words "not good outside of the State." On this occasion, however, Mr. Huntington's sub-ordinates neglected to make the qualifying indorsement, and thus gave Mr. Huntington's beneficiary an opportunity to requite that gentleman's kindness with treachery—an opportunity which Mr. Frank M. Stone wasted no time or scruple in improving. He promptly relinquished the personal advantages involved, and, finding a grand jury willing, not to say anxious, to aid him in his svirtuous and high-minded enterprise, 'succeeded in having Mr. Huntington indicted for a violation of the interstate commerce law. The arrest was made in New York on Monday, and the cuiprit is held await-ing the issue of an order of removal to California.

It is too late, of course, to protest against a law which makes such outrages possible. Neither is it worth while to dilate on the notorious conspiracy through which a coterie of discredited lobbyists and mercenaries have waged relentless war against Mr. Huntington for years past. The fact remains that this man, whose thrift and energy and brains have built up an industry by which pearman, whose thrift and energy and brains have built up an industry by which nearly a million people subsist in comfort and honorable independence, is now under arrest and threatened with removal to California for trial, because of the stupidity of an improvident law and the dulness and the malice of men who interpret and invoke it.

The spectacle is admirably calculated

HILTON'S, VA., April 21.—(Special.)—
The bonded distillery warehouse of Farmer Brothers, at Ahum Wells, was broken into by burglars Monday night, and several packages of whiskey were taken and destroyed. As this distillery is under suspension, and no government officer on duty there, it was an easy task for the thieves. The officers are on the lookout for them, and they will no doubt be apprehended and brought to justice. Farmer Brothers are doing an immense business at this place in the distillery and mercantile business.

will cure a stubborn cough when all the ordinary cough remedies have failed. Try it for yourself. We are putting up a fifty-cent size chiefly for that purpose. A cough is usually the telltale of a weakened physical condition. Correct that condition by the use of a proper remedy and the cough will soon disappear.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites acts in two ways. It nourishes, strengthens and builds up the system, at the same time allays the irritation and heals the inflammation. It gives immediate relief at night from the choking sensation so often accompanying a cold.

MR. JOHN L. BRADY DEAD. The Oldest Printer and Publisher of the Christian Intelligencer. SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.-(Spec'al.)-The death of Mr. John L. Beady occurred here this morning at about 6 o'clock. He had been thought to be much o'clock. He had been thought to be much better, and in fact his friends thought he might possibly weather it through and get over his spell. Feeling so much better, he, with his wife's assistance, walked a few steps into the yard and back, which fatigued him very much. He then undertook to lie down, and in a few minutes he was dead. It is thought that heart fallure, with which he has been threattned for some time, was the immediate cause. He would have been $1 yars old the 11th of May. Mr. Brady was a valued citizen and a Christian gentleman. He was the oldest printer in this part of the State, was for many years editor of our town paper, also publisher of the Christian Intelligencer. He moved to this place in 1816. He was a prominent Mason, and was for several years Mayor of Scotts-ville.
